SAN FERNANDO VALLEY JAYCEES TO CREATE ONE STOP SHOP FOR LOCAL VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES WITH 4th ANNUAL INVOLVEMENT EXPO ON MARCH 1st

SHERMAN OAKS, CA – You'll find more than great food and shopping at the Sherman Oaks Galleria on Monday, March 1st from 4:00-7:00pm. About 40 non-profit organizations will be on-site participating in the San Fernando Valley Jaycees' 4th Annual, award-winning, "Involvement 2010" Expo—which connects community members with local volunteer opportunities throughout the year.

This expo gives San Fernando Valley residents the opportunity to learn about the large number of FREE ways to dedicate their time and energy to service. Each non-profit organization will highlight their programs and services, and the public can get an up-close look at community needs and can make rewarding connections.

"This event demonstrates the many great opportunities there are locally to give back to your community," says Vickie Bourdas, current President of the San Fernando Valley Jaycees. "Volunteering your time helps so many of these deserving organizations, and gives you the satisfaction of knowing you're making a difference," she adds.

Involvement 2010 is a free event which takes place Monday, March 1st from 4:00-7:00pm. Parking is complementary, and the event will take place rain or shine in the plaza area of the Sherman Oaks Galleria, 15301 Ventura Blvd, in Sherman Oaks.

Students seeking community service opportunities for school credit are encouraged to attend.

For more information about the event, please contact Vickie Bourdas, President of the San Fernando Valley Jaycees at president@sfvjaycees.org.
